Project Pablo Bio

Project Pablo (Patrick Holland) is a Musician and DJ residing in Montreal, Quebec, Canada. Over the years he has released a wide array of records, spanning energy levels from bed time to peak time. While his long form efforts “I Want to Believe” and “Come to Canada You Will Like it” aim to soothe, the extended plays reveal clubbier euphoric elements; as heard through 2018’s “Hope You’re Well”, via Technicolour, and 2016’s “One For Some”, via Clone. Outside of solo endeavours, Holland co-pilots imprints ASL Singles Club and SOBO, all while collaborating with friends under the monikers Jump Source, Rest Corp and 2 Responsible. 2019 sees Holland turning focus to his own imprint Verdicchio Music Publishing with a string of solo records, as well as a new found catalogue reserved for Jump Source’s creations.
